COUNTRY Emers CLASSIFICATION EXAMINED  EVALUATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1  DATE OF CONTENT. To 27 October 1949 25X1  DATE OF CONTENT. To 27 October 1949 25X1  DATE OBTAINED 25X1  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & NOTE) 1 sketch on ditto  REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P 48/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1949, by the Budgest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complewed by GPP-Depth secentaries of the Ainistry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For date on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and EM wars quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain extillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that they made of the horses.  3. An ammunition of a first construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quentities of macedam were shipped from the Mor resiroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge retiroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the berracks.  1 Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, sport from the soldier's statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops, it eppears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  1 Lagend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)		CLASSIFICATION SECRETA
DATE OF CONTENT. To 27 October 1919  DATE OF CONTENT. To 27 October 1919  DATE OFFERENCES.  25X1  PAGES.  2 ENCLOSURES (No. a NYE) 1 sketch or ditto  REMARKS.  RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY.  1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P 48/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1919, by the Budapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complowed by 49PPsy construction NU. The first buildings of notions of the Maintary of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For date on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and El were quartered in the barracks at that time, No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain extillary unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  5. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macedom were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction meterials required at the depot were picked up at the berracks.  1 Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiers estatement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain roops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Nor, Hungary.  1 Legend to Annex:  A Kassrne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	COUNTRY_	HUDGETY CONT REPORT NO.25X1 25X1
DATE OF CONTENT To 27 October 1949 25X1  DATE OBTAINED 25X1  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 8 TWFE) 1 Sketch on ditto  REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  1. The construction of a barracks in Eor (P 48/Y 81) was started in min-April 1949, by the Budapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings completely experience the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For date on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and Em were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An assumition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the amaunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.  1. Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiert statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1. Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	TOPICB	enropie in May
REFERENCES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TWFE) 1 sketch on ditto  REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  1 1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P M8/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1949, by the Budapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings completely My PPP PPP produced to the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For date on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and ED were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillary unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An assumition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor reliroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge reliraed line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.  1		25X1
REMARKS  RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P 48/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1949, by the Badapast Factory-Construction NV. The first buildings complete April 1949 For data on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and Ell were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor reilroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.  1. Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiert statement that he balonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1. Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  1. Lannex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.		057/4
RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P 48/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1949. by the Eudapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complewed & GPPPER construction the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and EM were quartered in the barracks as that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artilery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.    Comment:	REFERENCE	SS
RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY  1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P 48/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1949. by the Budapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complowed by Epreches resentative of the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For data on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and EM were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  5. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.    Comment: The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiers statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	PAGES	2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 1 sketch on ditto
1. The construction of a barracks in Mor (P 48/Y 81) was started in mid-April 1949, by the Budapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complowed by Eprecia factory of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For date on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and El were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor reilroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge reilroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.    Comment:	REMARKS_	4
in mio-April 1949. by the Eudepest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complowed of PPPOGR esentative of the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For data on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and EM were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the dapot were picked up at the barracks.  1. Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiert statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1. Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  1. Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1. Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2. Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	Alternative contrates and a contrate of the contrates of	KETUKN TO CIA LIBKAKT
in mio-April 1949. by the Eudepest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complowed of PPPOGR esentative of the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For data on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and EM were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the dapot were picked up at the barracks.  1. Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiert statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1. Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  1. Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1. Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2. Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	and the second s in mio-April 1949. by the Eudepest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings complowed of PPPOGR esentative of the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For data on the barracks see Annex.  2. About two hundred Hungarian officers and EM were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.  3. An ammunition depot was under construction in the area NW of the barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the dapot were picked up at the barracks.  1. Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiert statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1. Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  1. Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1. Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2. Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)
barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-gauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at the depot were picked up at the barracks.  1 Comment:  The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiers statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  Lagend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	2.	in mid-April 1949.by the Budapest Factory-Construction NU. The first buildings completed by GPPT of resentative of the Ministry of National Defense on 25 October 1949. For data on the barracks see Annex.  About two hundred Hungarian officers and EL were quartered in the barracks at that time. No recruits were observed. Some soldiers said that they were a mountain artillery unit and expected soon to be issued guns and horses. A sergeant said that recruits would arrive on 4 November 1949. Rifles were the only arms observed.
The report on the Mor barracks may be true, apart from the soldiers statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	3。	barracks. Large quantities of macadam were shipped from the Mor railroad station toward the ammunition depot on a narrow-sauge railroad line. Other construction materials required at soldiers statement that he belonged to a mountain artillery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should be activated at all.  1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.  Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)	1	Comment:
Legend to Annex:  A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)		soldiers statement that he belonged to a mountain artifiery unit. No mountain troops have been observed with the Hungarian Army, and in view of the lack of any suitable training area for mountain troops, it appears unlikely that mountain units should
A Kaserne  1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)  2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)		1 Annex: Barracks in Mor, Hungary.
1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters) 2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)		Legend to Annex:
2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)		A Kaserne
25		1 Two-story building, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)
A CLASSIFICATION PANE		2 Two-story buildings, orderly rooms (25 x 40 meters)

25X1

_
S CRET/		· ·	25V1
	2		25/1

- 3 So-called Culture House (50 x 70 meters), 1,200-man suditorium
- 4 Ammunition storage containers
- 5 One-story dispensary (40 x 30 meters)
- 6 Three-story 600-man barracks building (20 x 60 meters)
- 7 Three-story 600-men barracks building (20 x 60 meters)
- 8 Water reservoir
- 9. One-story shed with 33 folding doors and workshop (135 x 5 msters)
- 10 Gun storage shed and workshop (40 x 12 meters)
- 11 Cun storage shed (30 x 12 meters)
- 12 Stable for 102 horses (55 x 12 meters)
- 13 Gun storage shed and workshop
- 14 Stable (55 x 12 meters)
- 15 Gun storage shed and workshop (40 x 12 meters)
- 16 Sever
- 17 Gun storage shed (30 x 12 meters)
- 18 One-story officers, mess
- 19 Officers' billets
- 20 Officers' billets
- 21 Target range

Some more buildings were allegedly to be constructed in the middle section of the barracks area. The entire barracks block was surrounded by a wire fence.

B Ammunition depot (under construction).

		1
	l ' 7571
COMORUM /	l '	1 23/1
ひさしれいエノ	l '	